General Information about the University (location, number of students, faculties)	The University of Trás-os-Montes and Alto Douro (UTAD) is a high-level institution for creating, transmitting, and disseminating culture, knowledge, and science. Located in Vila Real, in the North of Portugal, near the "Alto Douro Wine Region" World Heritage, famous for its landscape, wines, and gastronomy, it offers a quality of life ideal to live, study, and research. UTAD sets in an eco-campus that integrates one of Europe's most extensive Botanical Gardens. It has modern facilities, libraries, laboratories, online services, and sports facilities. The permanent teaching staff of 555 Professors, 100 researchers, and 410 technical and administrative staff members, support c. 7700 full-time students, 290 students under the Erasmus + and other mobility programs, and 30 students attending isolated curricular units. UTAD integrates five Schools the Agrarian and Veterinary Sciences; the Human and Social Sciences; the Science and Technology; the Life and Environmental Sciences, and the School of Health. These schools have a wide range of study programs like Bachelor's degrees and integrated master's degrees, Master's degrees, and PhD degrees, covering the major areas of education and training: Agriculture and Veterinary; Health and Social Protection; Health; Services; Education; Arts and Humanities; Social Sciences; Science, Mathematics and Informatics; Engineering, Manufacturing, and Construction. UTAD integrates six Research Centres: the Animal and Veterinary Research Centre, the Center for Studies in Letters, the Research Centre in Sports, Health Sciences and Human Development; the Centre for Research and Technology of Agro-environmental and Biological Sciences; the Vila Real Chemistry Research Center, and the Centre for Transdisciplinary Development Studies.

Our Campuses	The campus, built on the site of several adjacent former farm estates, is located near the city centre and has bus connections to any part of the city. The campus with about 120 ha is considered one of the largest botanical gardens in Europe, which brings together, in a single space, education and research. In Vila Real, there are good bus connections. Therefore, living in another part of the city is not a problem for the students, as there is a bus company – Urbanos – which links every part of the city and the campuses. The last bus from the campus to the city centre is at 20h00. Vila Real is a safe town, with easy accessibility and high quality of life, integrated into a unique scenario – UNESCO World Heritage, The Douro Valley.
